

It is my real, sincere hope - one of the intimate high hopes of my better life - that no Creator will so cruel as to deny Mr. Pickwick, and Sam Weller, and all of them, the charity to our hearts /my heart\ of our the real existence somewhere somewhere where our timeless days may also be. I have forgotten real true tears at Dingley Dell and the fame I can even see. |*Broken on| beyond decent sentimental telling.

And often, when I have thought of never thinking more I have been wakened from Hell by the three those three great cheers Mr. Weller |*seemed| gave for Mr. Pickwick, which are the grand expression of all Christian civilization.

The chivalry of direct human kindness.
