

Why did Poe write little poetry? Because the critical faculty was developed at the same time as the poetic propensity. He wrote verse with ease while at college, but then neither his true imagination nor his intellect were developed. These were developed at the same time. Hence the critical faculty, the analytic mind, being ever on the watch, allowed not inspiration to take its free course.

Shelley and Byron always wrote with ease; they had not any extraordinary amount of critical faculty; Byron least so.

Shelley had love of order but no continuousness. Byron had neither. Hence Byron is the more careless of the two Em todos os tempos houve antigos e modernos.

Passado sempre bom, presente sempre mau.

Men never content with past.

Cada um teve um pae como quer que elle fosse para os filhos e assim vamos tornando banaes.
