Nymphs in nude sleep in bowers which ~~must~~ must be scented
By odors deeper than the human soul
Unto whose fragrance is a music blended .N.
That strange and sad the spirit doth control.

A life chain-lock'd with ~~loveliness~~ Beauty's power
The tranquil prisoner in her own beauty's cave
She fills (...) the ~~careless~~ blessing of an hour
Like children that will play upon a grave.

Remark the ~~heaving~~ heaving of her ~~tumid~~ tumid breast
Full with the mystic swell of ~~puerility~~ maidenhood
Remark how her breath ~~betrays~~ betrays her soul's unrest
That with ~~ignorant sweetness~~ sweet ignorance of <sup>/on\</sup> love's ways doth hood.

4.
The dreams and sweeten in that bower secluded
The tender zephyr sends a vague caress
As (...) rose-petals (...) as lone (...) intruded
With ignorant lust (...) undress (...)

Her (...) arms are carelessly disposed
Mingling serenely with the (...) grass
Slightly aside her (...) head is reposed
And over her ~~light-stricken~~ light shadows go <sup>/shake\</sup> and pass.

~~The Preacher said: My talk, it is to take
To men the mystic balsam of a creed
And in the hearts lost trod taken to awake
A fervour above life and above creed.~~

~~My work is to contrast out cast the very need
For beat and the joys of love chains of love to break
And the whole friend of † joy to rake
Clear for the saying of wine holy seed.~~

~~I go to preach a doctrine sweet and sad
Of resignation, of love (...) of sacrifice
I turn my back to life, on exactly this
But e'en I go, oh God, can I be mad
In God I can take with me from His vice life extreme benevolence / e'en to keep against vice to that evid<sup>t</sup>
The soul † seeming of a kiss?~~
